

Tip 12 (April 2010)

Measure Vitamin D levels in your patients with hypertension and supplement those under 75nmol/l

This is not in the major hypertension management guidelines yet, but looks to me like it may well be in the future. See my Newsletter-Comment (April 2010) for further information on this.